

Online Diploma of Project Management

What is the Online Diploma of Project Management?

It is a fully online interactive training resource for Project Management at Diploma level. The content has been developed by experienced industry practitioners - Project Management Development International (PMDI).

What are the features of the Online Diploma of Project Management?

- It is mapped to the Australian National Competency Standards (AQF 5).
- It is aligned to the PMBOK®.
- It provides an active, engaging learning environment.
- It has highly interactive problem solving activities.
- It includes downloadable research activities to further enhance learning.

What are the benefits of the Online Diploma of Project Management?

- Time spent away from the workplace is minimised.
- Self-paced design caters for a variety of learning styles.
- Building project management capability is more achievable.
- Qualification issued upon successful completion of the competency based assessment.

What are the advantages of the Online Diploma of Project Management?

- Current topics such as green procurement are included.
- Real project management capabilities are embedded at the coalface.
- Tangible returns on investment are realised.

Who is the Online Diploma of Project Management for?

- Employees wanting to obtain practical project management skills.
- Project managers wanting to maximise organisational productivity.

PMDI Online Diploma of Project Management

PMDI Dashboard

